

Sandy Upchurch-Aronson
Spokane, WA.

Education: BSN from Eastern Washington University with additional credits in studio art and computer graphics. Other instructors include: Jack Hines, Jessica Zemsky, Don Nepean, Robert Abbott, Ann Templeton, Emma Randolph, Del Gish, William F. Reese, Tom Lynch and others.

Exhibitions:

River Ridge juried Shows, Spokane WA. with honorable mention in oil in 1987 and water media in 1990.

“Best and Brightest” juried show for Scottsdale Art School 1990 and 1991 with third place in water media in 1991.

Spokane Art School juried Art Show, 1993 with second place award in adult painters category.

Carnegie Art Center, Walla Walla WA. juried show 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1999. Awards in oil category in 1994 and water media in 1996.

“Western Reflections” juried show in Richland, Wa. 1999

Juried show Puyallup, Wa. in 1999

Wallowa Valley Festival of Arts, juried show, Joseph, Oregon, 2015

Roslyn Art Fest juried show, Roslyn, WA. 2015

Spokane Watercolor Society juried show, Spokane Wa. 2015, 2016

First Night Spokane juried show, 2015, with People's Choice award

EAFa juried show, Bellevue, WA. 2016

Experience: I have been painting, drawing and working with fiber, glass and gemstones most of my life. Other experiences includes a collaboration with a sign painter in Kamiah to create a roadside exhibit for the Lewis-Clark Centennial.